

Welfare Agencies

1420

The administration and school counselor shall be responsible for detecting and referring those students in need of welfare assistance. The administration or school counselor shall keep current a reference file of authorized community agencies and officials who can render assistance when needed.