

State and Regional Agencies

1430

The school district will strive to maintain full accreditation with the Nebraska State Department of Education and will cooperate with the Nebraska Department of Health, the State Auditors Office, and those other State agencies which may interact with public school education.